Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 2, 5-14 and 17-25 (renumbered 1-21) are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The inventive entity persuasively argued (Remark, Page 14, Line 7 through Page 16, Line 11, and Page 17, Lines 1-22) that none of the prior art of record taken singularly or in combination teaches or suggests the combined functional limitations of obtaining, by an infrastructure management appliance, customer specific information for establishing a secure virtual connection with a remote data center, said customer specific information being obtained from said remote data center via a first communication interface to said infrastructure management appliance; wherein said remote data center is connected to a public network, wherein said infrastructure management appliance is connected to a customer network via a second communication interface to said infrastructure management appliance, and wherein said infrastructure management appliance is connectable to said public network via said second communication interface and said customer network; establishing responsive to said customer specific information obtained via said first communication interface, said secure virtual connection with said remote data center by said infrastructure management appliance, wherein said secure virtual connection with the remote data center is established over said public network via a said second communication interface to said infrastructure management appliance; monitoring, by said infrastructure management
